

Guilty Pleasures

BY CHARLES MONAGAN

Spring driving-around- in the-car season has officially arrived, and we'd like to provide you with some destinations. Destinations for food, that is. Road food. Casual chow. Guilty pleasures. This time, we looked for spots we haven't often included before. So go, enjoy—and don't forget the napkins.

Lake Zoar Drive-In

14 Roosevelt Dr., Monroe,
(203) 268-8137 www.lakezoardrivein.com

We had to have at least one picnic-table burger joint on the list, and Lake Zoar, with its big, messy burgers and delish shakes, is it. This is actually a breakfast, lunch and dinner spot, but the emphasis seems to be on the burgers. The Zoar Burger is a quarter-pounder with bacon, cheese, lettuce, tomato, pickles, mustard, raw onion, ketchup and mayo. Highly recommended.

Article Appeared in the May 2011 Issue